

Gordon Hammes ACS Biochemistry Lectureship

The Hammes Lectureship

The objective of the lectureship is to honor, at an annual ACS meeting, the contributions of an individual who has had a major impact on scientific research at the interface of chemistry and biology particularly in the realm of biochemistry, biological chemistry and molecular biology.

There are no restrictions on age or membership affiliation for the Hammes lectureship, but candidates must have published at least one paper in Biochemistry.

2009	William Eaton
2010	Perry Frey
2011	Doug Turner
2012	Angela Gronenborn
2013	Christopher T. Walsh
2014	Thomas L. Poulos
2015	Frank M. Raushel
2016	Carol A. Fierke
2017	John A. Gerlt
2018	Vern L. Schramm
2019	Dan Kahne
2020	JoAnne Stubbe